THE NAZI OFFICER'S WIFE
BY EDITH HAHN BEER AND SUSAN DWORKIN
LANDS ON NEW YORK TIMES BEST SELLERS LISTS

Author Susan Dworkin wrote THE NAZI OFFICER'S WIFE (Harper Collins) with the woman who lived it, the late Edith Hahn Beer. Now, more than ten years since this tale of love and terror in the Third Reich was first published, The New York Times places it at Number 2 on the E-Book Nonfiction Best Sellers list and Number 10 on the combined Print & E-Book Nonfiction Best Sellers list for the week of April 6, 2014.

The memoir is also an Amazon Best Seller, ranking Number 1 in multiple categories, including History of Religion, History of Judaism, Women and the Holocaust.

Originally published in 1999 and hailed as "one of the best Holocaust memoirs" (Library Journal), THE NAZI OFFICER'S WIFE has been translated into many languages, becoming an international best seller as well.

Edith Hahn Beer, a Jewish woman who assumed an Aryan identity and married a Nazi officer who maintained her disguise, teamed up with Susan Dworkin to tell her amazing story. Beer passed away in 2009.

Dworkin's most recent book, THE VIKING IN THE WHEAT FIELD (Bloomsbury), is the acclaimed political biography of crusading seed banker Bent Skovmand. Inspired by her research into the history and politics of the world's agricultural security, Dworkin penned her forthcoming novel, THE COMMONS, a gripping science fiction adventure about a stealth alliance of farmers, corporate executives, and musicians fighting to save the world from starvation.
